

TODAY'S COLLEGE CLASSROOM

New Student Orientation

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

Differences Between High School and College

Today's College Classroom

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

CLASSROOM SOFTWARE

- Blackboard (Learning Management System)
 - Course assignments, videos, exams, submission links, lecture slides, etc.
- Zoom
 - Video Conferencing
- TurnItIn
 - Plagiarism checker and online portal
- Respondus/Lockdown browser
- ProctorU

COURSE MODES AND DELIVERY

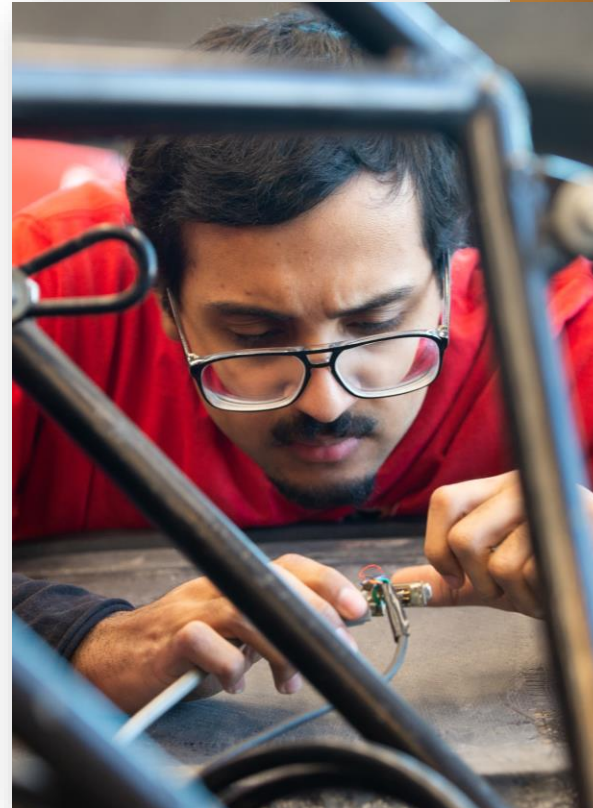

Course Modes:

- In-person
- Online
- Asynchronous
- Synchronous
- Hybrid
- Lab

Delivery:

- Lectures
- Discussions
- “Flipped” classrooms
- Problem-solving
- Group projects

Today's College Classroom

Course Syllabi

Syllabus (noun):

A document provided by an instructor at the start of a course that outlines the course objectives, schedule, assignments, grading policies, expectations, and resources.

Connecting with Faculty

Today's College Classroom

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

Connecting with Each Other

Today's College Classroom

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

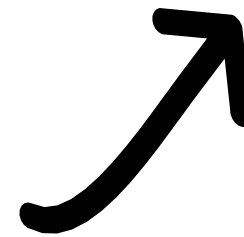

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Be flexible and adaptable!
- Make a point to connect with your faculty
- Connect with, and rely on, each other

The classroom experience varies from instructor to instructor!

CONTACT US

Dr. Michael Hair
Associate Professor
School of Business
618-650-2586
mhair@siue.edu

Jenni Hunt
Instructor
School of Business
618-650-2587
jehunt@siue.edu