Stress Lunch and Learn

April is Stress Awareness Month, designed to increase public awareness about both the causes and cures for our modern stress epidemic. Join the Learning Resource Center on Tuesday, April 16 from 12:00-1:00 p.m. for a Lunch and Learn focusing on activities to help with stress.

Please RSVP for the event by Friday, April 12 to reserve your place and so we can order enough lunches!

To RSVP for either of these Lunch and Learn presentations:

call: 618-874-8719
email: siue.esl.library@gmail.com

Autism Awareness Month

Did you know April is Autism Awareness month? To recognize autism awareness, the LRC will be hosting a Lunch and Learn presentation on Tech Apps and Autism. The presentation, focusing on apps created for individuals with autism and for better understanding of autism, will take place on Wednesday, April 24 from 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Please RSVP for the event by Friday, April 19th to reserve your spot, and your lunch!

March Recap

Reginald Petty: The second presentation Mr. Petty was scheduled to give on his Peace Corp experience in Africa was delayed due to inclement weather in February. However, his event was rescheduled for Tuesday, March 12 at 1:00 p.m. The LRC has been honored to host Mr. Petty for these events!

Couponing 101- Kadie Carr joined us on March 1st for this Lunch and Learn presentation, offering many helpful money-saving tips and tricks for not only couponing in general, but also shopping, budgeting, saving, and her many lucrative side-hustles! It was a fun, delicious, and informative way to spend a lunch hour. Keep an eye on our future events for other exciting Lunch and Learn presentations!

Financial Literacy: The LRC hosted Part 3: Credit and Credit Score on Tuesday, March 5, 11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. Watch our calendar and Facebook page for more of these well-attended financially focused classes to come.

Women's History Month Midday Movies: The LRC showed two Women's History themed movies in March, the first on March 6th and the second on March 20th!

Cooking Classes: Every Friday in March from 12-2, the LRC hosted an Eat, Save, Move lunch and learn that focused on healthy eating and informed cooking choices.

National Scribble Day: Rebecca Harper, the Learning Resource Director, joined forces with Headstart Discover once again for some Scribble Day activities on March 27th.

Thursday, April 18 is Haiku Poetry Day!

What exactly is Haiku? Well, here's a Haiku about Haiku.

Haiku /har'ku/ noun

Japanese poem
of seventeen syllables five, seven and five

俳句

Visit the LRC on Monday, April 22nd! It's National Jelly Bean Day, and we just might have some jelly beans for our visitors!

Did you know the Learning Resource Center has story time every Thursday with the Discovery Headstart Center?

Did you know that, after Headstart's story time, the LRC also holds an additional story time open to the public?

Children five and under are welcome. Please bring your toddlers, spread the word to other parents, and get the word out!
